Elder Selection Update: The elder candidates met Wednesday evening in the sanctuary to share their individual discernment regarding their availability to serve the church as elders and to create a slate for the congregation to join in the discernment process. Four men are available to serve and willing to be called by God through a congregational vote. Two elders are needed. Pray for God's direction as we seek to identify the two elders He is calling from among the following four individuals (listed in alphabetically order); Delvin Mast, Jason Miller, Karl Stutzman and Freeman Schrock. The congregational vote will take place during the worship service, November 10th. Absentee ballots will be available November 3 and are due back by the time of the vote on the 10th.

The elders want your input. This year's AET (Annual Evaluation Tool) is available on the credenza. All AET's are due next Sunday, November 3, after the evening service. Completed AET's may be placed in the box on the credenza.

Have items to donate to the MCC Relief Sale? Please place them on the tables set up in the breezeway by Thursday evening, Oct 31st. Bob and Becky Yoder have graciously agreed to transport jellies and other items to the sale. If you would like to go to the sale, but need a ride, please contact Phyllis Stutzman and she can connect you with others who are going. The OK MCC sale is again being held at the Chisholm Trail Expo Center in Enid

We will be joining the Fairview churches again this year to can meat for MCC, Dec 4,5,6. A letter with complete information is on the bulletin board, or you may visit with Bob Yoder.

The Zion Amish Mennonite Church is hosting their annual fundraising waffle supper Monday, Nov. 4, from 5:00-8:00 PM. There will not be a bake sale, but they will be taking orders to pick up before Thanksgiving.

November calendars and Bible reading/prayer schedules are in the pamphlet rack. Even if you are reading a different plan for the year, inside the folder is a daily prayer schedule, which if used, you will pray for everyone in the church each month!!!!

Thank you! The church office had a special visitor drop by this past Wednesday. Jean Miller stopped by to catch up and say, "I just want to thank everyone for all of the cards I received wishing me well on my birthday. Thank you".
