2020 Elder Selection Update: The elder candidates met recently to share their individual discernment regarding their availability to serve at PVMC as elders and create a slate for the congregation to join in the discernment process. Four men are available to serve and willing to be called by God through a congregational vote. Two elders are needed. Pray for God's direction as we seek to identify the two elders. He is calling from among the following four individuals (listed in alphabetically order); Matt Jackson, Kevin Martin, Stenson Miller, and Kyle Slagell. The congregational vote will take place during the worship service next Sunday, November 8th. Absentee ballots are available on the credenza today and are due back by the time of the vote on the 8th.

Oklahoma Mennonite Relief online auction ~ Join up for the online quilt and artisan craft auction, happening from now until November 5. The sale is to help MCC supply access to clean water worldwide. Register to view and bid on quilts and crafts by scanning the code on the back of the postcard on the bulletin board or logging in to www.OKReliefSale.com.

OK Relief Sale ~Greetings. Praying that everyone is staying well. We want to thank everyone that helped get the online auction items ready to post. I hope you will find time to follow the auction as it is in progress. We also thank all those individuals that donated items for the sale. Please thank your members for us. There will be a fundraising dinner at the Fairview MB, November 29. Crafts and food items will be available for purchase at the meal.

Calendars ~The November Bible reading guides and event calendars are available on the round table in the foyer

The MCC Canner will be in Newton, KS., November 2-24. Due to Covid, the canner will be making a limited number of stops this year, none in Oklahoma. You can still be a part of the canner by scheduling a time to volunteer, November 2-24, or through your financial giving. Checks may be made out to PVMC with MCC Canner noted on the memo line. If you have any questions, please contact Ben Warner or Bob Yoder

Breaking Free! Victorious Women (Ladies' group of which Faith Slagell has been a part of for many years) invites you to attend a free online event—Breaking Free, Nov 13-15! Hear from speaker Naomi Byler from Salisbury, PA. Worship with Anointed Hearts, a family singing group, from Salyersville, KY. We know this online event can't fully replace the fun and fellowship experienced at a real retreat, but we pray that the Lord will use it to encourage and bless as you engage in this unique way. The brochure with all the information and schedule is on the bulletin board.

Listed below are the options for watching:

1. SUBSCRIBE to the Victorious Women's YouTube channel (search for Victorious Women, INC)

2. WATCH at <https://www.vwretreat.com>

If you are interested, please contact Faith for more information.

Be wise ~The elders encourage everyone to continue to make wise choices regarding their health and the health of the congregation. In an effort to build trust and lessen hearsay, the elders ask that if you are sick, test positive for Covid or feel you may have had direct exposure to Covid, please stay at home. We encourage you to contact someone on the elder team so you can be prayed for, and that the plan for your recovery or quarantine is known. Should someone attend worship and then discover that they have Covid, the elders will assist in notifying the congregation as appropriate.
